About Michael Eilermann In A Nutshell

I am a business networking strategist of sorts.

* I am the person who makes these custom digital business cards, which start at $20 one time. People need a way to share you, as well as a simple way to tell other people about you.

These cards do the trick, and you will never be without a business card again as long as you have your phone.

* I help people get into their own personal "About Me" web site and teach them how to edit it, in around two hours.

* I help you tell more people who you are and what you do, and how you can help them using platforms such as LinkedIn, Facebook and Google. See My Short Video

* I am the founder of G6ten, Christian business networking & resource center.

* And I help people with simple Life Improvement additional streams of income.

Hopefully, something here stirs enough curiosity to give me a call and have a conversation.

Most Everything I Do Is $35 or Less 1 Time
